He has not come back home till date after he proceeded to Siliguri for medical treatment for backache on July 2010. The complainant Mrs. Krishna Giri (wife of the MOP) said that he had quite a lot of debts to the local businessmen in the town for which she is being pressurized now. She also stated that initially her husband used to call her from Indian mobile number. If anyone comes across the MOP, may kindly contact to the nearest Police station in toll free number 113.
